

Illinois Veterans' Group Fails to Get Agreement on Bonus

Sen. Collins' Announcement Called "About 90 Per Cent Right"

Springfield, Ill., March 7.—(AP)—Perfection of a soldiers' bonus plan by the Illinois veterans' compensation commission today appeared unlikely for another month or longer.

Following two days of meetings, the commission late yesterday adjourned discussions, and its chairman, Senator Everett R. Peters (R-St. Joseph), said the group's next session would be held "probably after the April 9 primary."

The chairman said members still were not in agreement on "several important issues," among them bonus amounts, eligibility provisions and methods of financing.

Peters expressed belief, however, that the commission's next meeting would iron out remaining differences of opinion and that shortly thereafter formal recommendations would be presented to Gov. Green. The special commission, created by the general assembly in 1945, has been studying various bonus proposals for more than four months.

"Collins 90 Pct. Right"

"We are not satisfied with some of our figures on which eligibility and financing decisions would have to be based, particularly those we have on the number of soldiers killed," Peters declared. "We think those we have cover only soldiers killed in action, whereas we need an accurate figure on all service connected deaths."

Before discussions came to a standstill, Senator Dennis J. Collins (R-DeKalb), a commission member, said the commission would recommend a special session of the legislature in April to enact bonuses for 915,000 Illinois veterans.

Other commission recommendations, Collins said, would include a $750 maximum bonus for service overseas, a $600 maximum for domestic service and financing through a boost of the sales tax to three per cent.

A commission member who asked not to be identified said Collins was "about 90 per cent right."

Charge Attempt to Steal Atom Secret

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—The house committee investigating un-American activities said today foreign agents are trying to steal America's atom bomb secrets.

Chairman John S. Wood (D-Ga.) told newsmen the committee had authorized him to announce that an investigation has disclosed the theft attempt.

He added that the committee is cooperating with "other government agencies, particularly the war department."

Wood phrased his remarks cautiously in discussing the inquiry with reporters. He declined to name the nations involved.

Asked whether the investigation showed any connection between the reported theft efforts here and those recently announced in Canada, Wood replied:

"I don't know. I'm not sure just what agents were at work up there."

The Canadian government has accused Russia of attempting to obtain secret information, including data about the atomic bomb. Moscow has said the data obtained from Canadian citizens was of no special interest to Soviet authorities.

Government Will Relinquish Claims to Old Canal Lands

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—An agreement by which the federal government will relinquish all claims to property along the abandoned Illinois-Michigan canal was reported by J. Ward Smith, of Ottawa, Ill., chairman of the canal commission.

Commission members and officials from the department of the interior have agreed, Smith said yesterday in a statement, on terms of legislation which would pave the way for state acquisition of land along the old waterway.

The new legislation proposed, Smith said, was approved by the federal officials after the interior department had rejected earlier measures, largely on technical objections.

Edward P. Saltiel of Chicago, commission attorney who drafted the new legislation, explained that the objections were overcome by assuring the interior department that the 97-mile canal, originally built on public lands, would be used by the state for public purposes only.

Odyssey

Tokyo, March 7.—(AP)—The merchantship Edwin Markham sailed from San Francisco "after we definitely knew the war was over," her skipper said today, carrying around the Pacific—for 185 days—war material "that somebody obviously wanted shipped out of the States rather than have it piled up there."

At one stage of its Odyssey, the ship—with 25 others—was ordered from one side of Okinawa to the other, and "we understood this was for the purpose of hoodwinking a congressional committee into thinking we had just arrived," the skipper, Capt. C. C. Wright of Alameda, Calif., asserted.

Today the vessel began unloading officers' club furniture, "expensive sedans for generals" and other cargo it had picked up in Manila in January.

Sublette Taverns to Close Sundays After April First

Sublette taverns will be forbidden to sell liquor or alcoholic beverages on Sunday, beginning April 1, as a result of action taken by the village board, it was announced late Wednesday by Francis Morrissey, board president.

Action on the Sunday sale of liquor in the village was taken after Judge George C. Dixon summoned board members to a probation hearing in Lee county Circuit court in which a 16-year-old boy testified he had purchased liquor on Sunday in Sublette taverns on two occasions.

Judge Asks Action

The judge told the board that a "disreputable and deplorable" condition is existing in the village when a boy of that age is able to obtain liquor there on Sunday and asked the board to rectify the situation.

Morrissey assured the judge such action would be taken but blamed "riff-raff" coming into the village from other localities for the unpleasant condition criticized by the court.

MacArthur Concerned About Slow Airmail

Tokyo, March 7.—(AP)—General MacArthur is gravely concerned about a collapse in airmail service that has resulted in letters taking as long as 37 days to reach Japan from California, a headquarters spokesman said today.

After a week of no mail, letters were distributed at headquarters late today. Some were postmarked Jan. 30. Although bearing air mail stamps, they presumably came by ship. But many ships make the trip in two weeks.

A contract service of civilian personnel has been suggested.

Headquarters reported recently that greatly reduced personnel caused crippling of airmail service.

Yesterday, 100,000 copies of the Bible, printed in Japanese were brought in by plane.

Score

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—The final score of axis submarines sunk during World War II puts the figure at 996, of which 781 were Nazi U-boats, 130 Japanese and 85 Italian.

These figures were made public simultaneously in Washington and London today by the Navy department and the British Admiralty.

Of the German U-boats sunk, British forces accounted for 524 and the United States 174. United States forces destroyed 110.5 and British 9.5 Japanese submarines. (The half credit represents operations against a submarine.) British units sent down 68 Italian submarines, American forces 4.

"Other" or "unknown" causes accounted for the remaining 83 Germany, 10 Japan and 13 Italian submarines.

Commission members and officials from the department of the interior have agreed, Smith said yesterday in a statement, on terms of legislation which would pave the way for state acquisition of land along the old waterway.

The new legislation proposed, Smith said, was approved by the federal officials after the interior department had rejected earlier measures, largely on technical objections.

Truman's Battered Housing Bill Near Showdown in House

Republican Substitute for Measure Turned Down Wednesday

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—Stripped of provisions for construction subsidies and price ceilings on existing housing, the administration's housing bill finally passed the house today.

A 357 to 24 roll call vote sent the bill to the senate.

Nineteen Republicans and five Democrats voted against the bill.

The house earlier had refused the motion of Rep. Jesse Sumner (R-Ill.) to send the legislation back to the committee by a 304 to 76 vote.

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—The administration's much-whittled housing bill limped toward a final vote in the house today, but Housing Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt said it was in such shape it would not achieve the goal of 2,700,000 new homes.

Rep. Keefe (R-Wis.) declared the legislation had been "amended up one side and down the other. Nobody knows what's in it."

Keefe is the one who delayed final action on the measure last night by insisting on a reading of the engrossed text—the official printed copy in amended form. Since this copy would take several hours to prepare, Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) set the vote for today.

Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich.), who failed in an attempt to substitute a Republican bill, predicted the whittled down administration measure would pass overwhelmingly.

He differed sharply with Wyatt on the virtues of the reshaped legislation, declaring "Mr. Wyatt is given ample authority in this bill, as the house has written it, to effectuate his program."

Ceilings, Subsidies Killed

Wyatt has been championing two key provisions which the house struck from the bill—ceiling prices for all existing housing, and a $600,000,000 subsidy fund to accelerate production of building materials.

Before it completed the whitening process on the legislation, the house took a slap at OPA, voting 102 to 75 to strip OPA of final say over prices of building materials and vest this authority in Housing expediter Wyatt.

Keefe said that with his authority Wyatt could force price adjustments on building materials that would get production without subsidies.

The house also struck out, by

True Sisters Win Fight; No Shorts

Blue Mound, Ill., March 7.—(AP)—Two sisters who refused to wear shorts in their required physical education classes can qualify for a Blue Mound high school diploma after all, says Principal J. J. Laws.

"Just so they wear gym shoes," Laws said last night in a ruling on the objections of Dolcie and Teresa True, girls may attend physical education classes in "dresses, slacks or any other kind of clothing."

Laws' announcement helped clear the way for Dolcie, 18-year-old senior, to graduate in June and Teresa, 16, two years from now. Earlier this week, Laws had written Albert True, their father, that state law requires pupils not exempt by a physician to take the physical education courses before they can graduate.

True, a painter and paper hanger, objected to his daughters' entering the classes because he was opposed to shorts on the "grounds of decency." He could not be reached for comment on Law's statement last night.

that Ray Milland will cop top male acting honors for his performance in "The Lost Week End" although the perennial Bing Crosby has some support for his work in "The Bells of St. Mary's." The same sources say that the feminine award will go either to Lucretia Joan Crawford for her "Mildred Pierce" or to Ingrid Bergman, who starred with Bing in "Bells."

Directors mentioned most prominently for awards are Billy Wilder, who engineered "Lost Week End," and Leo McCarey, for "The Bells of St. Mary's."

Jimmy Stewart, recently a colonel in the Army Air Forces, will be master of ceremonies the first half of the show, and comedian Bob Hope the second.

Kings Quit Posts at Infirmary

Resignations End Trouble With Lee County Governors

Supervisors Accept and Vote Them Pay for Current Annum

Mr. and Mrs. William King, superintendent and matron respectively at the Lee County home, tendered their resignations yesterday afternoon after a meeting with State's Attorney Moley C. Pires and a special three-man commission from the Board of Supervisors. The joint resignation, effective June 30, was accepted by a unanimous vote of the board.

The board also voted to pay the couple the remainder of their salary in a lump sum after an inventory of county property in their possession, and commended them "for services rendered". They agreed to vacate the home within 10 days.

Although ill health was given as the reason for the action, it was felt that recent differences which had arisen between King and the County Home committee were the principal cause for yesterday's developments. A permanent successor cannot be appointed until the resignation becomes effective, and it was not known today who the board would name to take charge in the interim.

Refused Nurses Admission

The trouble started when King, who has been at the home approximately four years, refused to admit A. C. Higby, Dixon township supervisor, a chairman of the infirmary committee, when he went to the home with two nurses just hired to work there. Instead, he was said to have offered the nurses jobs scrubbing floors.

King also allegedly refused to accept a set of rules and regulations for the home.

A special session of the County Infirmary committee then agreed to recommend his resignation at the February meeting of the Board of Supervisors, but the differences were apparently resolved, after King reportedly refused to resign.

The special commission, which was named during yesterday's morning session and met with Mr. and Mrs. King and State's Attorney Pires, included John Finn, H. O. Rissler and L. D. Hemenway.

Other Transactions

Aside from action on the resignation of Mr. and Mrs. King, the board took the following steps during yesterday's afternoon session:

1. Directed Highway Superintendent William Leake to go ahead with plans for the construction of a bridge on the Rock Island road south of Nelson to be paid for

No Ceiling

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—Ceiling price on fish worms? None at all, chuckled the OPA.

The Office of Price Administration officials got a big kick out of it when they told newsmen Felts of Johnson City, Ill., he could let his worms go at any price he chose.

With tongue in cheek, Felts had sent the OPA this telegram:

"The weather here is very mild and people are getting the fishing fever. We would like to know about the ceiling on fish worms."

"I might state that we have some worms that have been stilled full winter with coffee grounds and butter-milk and we think the ceiling on these well kept worms should be more than on a worm that has roughed it all winter."

Ogle Grand Jury Indicts Rafferty

Oregon, March 7.—Norbert Rafferty, 32, Safford road, Rockford, married and the father of three children, was bound over to the April grand jury Wednesday afternoon on a charge of rape involving a 19-year-old Rockford girl.

Rafferty is being held in the Ogle county jail under bond of $10,000 set by Justice of the Peace Chester A. Landers, before whom he was arraigned. He was unable to post bond.

The alleged attack on Audrey Littlefield, Rockford, took place Saturday night on a lonely side road, nine miles south of Rockford. The girl told authorities she met her attacker, whom she did not know at the time, in a Rockford tavern and that he offered

Soviet Intentions in Iran Uncertain

Teheran, March 7.—(AP)—Russia's intentions in northeastern Iran were further clouded today by an announcement that Red army forces had prevented Iranian troops from moving into three towns which Soviet officials had said they were evacuating last Saturday.

Announcement of the Red Army's action, made by the Iranian war ministry, came as Premier Ahmed Qavam Es Saltaneh left Moscow where he formally protested Russia's delay in quitting Iranian soil.

The war ministry said a division of Iranian troops, which left here in two units on Saturday and Sunday with instructions to occupy the towns of Samnan, Shahrud and Meshed, had been halted by Russian forces 60 miles east of Teheran.

The ministry added it was awaiting details from the officer commanding the Iranian troops.

The three towns named by the war ministry were specifically mentioned by Moscow last Friday in a statement declaring that Russian troops were being withdrawn from some areas which were "more or less quiet."

American Property in Hungary Ruined by Red Operations

(The following dispatch, filed in Budapest Feb. 19, still is withheld by the Russian censor there. However, it was sent by courier to another European capital for radio transmission. Indefinite suppression of this dispatch without notification to the writer that it was being withheld was one reason for a protest filed with the Allied Control Commission for Hungary by Jack Quinn, AP correspondent.)

Budapest, Feb. 19.—(Delayed by Censorship)—(AP)—Responsible American sources said today that "the Russians have ruined one American oil well" in the Lipse area fields in southwestern Hungary and that the total damages to date from the Russian operation of this American property amounted to roughly $25,000,000.

The sources, who asked to remain anonymous because of a desire "not to get involved with the Russians," said another well on the American-owned Hungarian-American Oil Co. property "is being

Chinese Artillery Hits French Ships

Saigon, Indochina, March 7.—(AP)—Chinese artillerymen who opened fire on a French naval and troop force off Haiphong harbor yesterday killed at least 10 soldiers and severely damaged the French light cruiser Triomphant, the French said today.

The cruisers Triomphant and Emile Bertin and escorting craft were standing off Haiphong, port of Hanoi, the Indochina capital, with 20,000 troops prepared to take over occupation from Chinese forces.

The French said the Triomphant was hit in four places, and two landing craft were set afire by the Chinese fire. The Triomphant withheld her fire for 40 minutes but finally opened up on the Chinese infantrymen with her five-inch guns, the French statement said. The French then withdrew. Liaison was sought with Chinese authorities ashore.

(Chinese dispatches from Chungking said the exchange was due to "technical difficulties" and that French occupation of the port had been delayed until Thursday.)

The French fleet was approaching Haiphong to relieve Chinese occupation forces north of the 16th parallel in conformance with a Chinese-French agreement of several days ago.

Honeymoon

Danville, Ill., March 7.—(AP)—A honeymoon cottage, a rustic setting, a stock of food and transportation—if needed—were offered free today to Vermillion county's World War 2 veterans and their brides.

The father of a veteran, who wished to remain anonymous, made the offer through the Danville Commercial News to any returned serviceman who has never had a honeymoon opportunity, whether or not he was married recently.

All the veterans wishing to apply for the three-day honeymoon need to send a letter to the newspaper.

The owner of the cottage said this was his way of expressing his gratitude to the men from the county who had fought in the war.

Spanish Radio Says Gen. Franco Aided Allied Powers During War

London, March 7.—(AP)—Spain, fighting back against the movement abroad for replacement of the Franco regime, maintained today that her government aided the allied powers during the war by preventing axis domination of the Mediterranean North Africa and the Near East.

"Hitler planned to enter Spain Jan. 10, 1941. We saw the intention of the two dictators to incorporate Spain into the axis and so to dominate the Mediterranean, and with it North Africa and the Near East," the Madrid radio said.

"The one who prevented the carrying out of these ambitious plans was neither Great Britain nor the United States of America. The one who prevented it was Gen-

Postponement of Scheduled Railroad Strike Appears Probable

Cleveland, March 7.—(AP)—Postponement of a scheduled strike by Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Locomotive Engineers appeared likely today as it was announced in Washington President Truman would name an emergency fact-finding panel to study the workers' wage dispute.

Appointment of such a panel, in accordance with provisions of the Railway Labor Act, presumably would delay an actual walk-out 30 to 60 days.

President A. F. Whitney of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Alvaney Johnston, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, announced yesterday a deadline of 6 a. m. next Monday for a progressive strike against 384 railroads and terminals.

Pending official notification of the panel's appointment, Johnston said only:

"I am a law abiding citizen and personally would not favor embarrassing the president."

PHONE STRIKE OFF

(By The Associated Press)

A threatened nation-wide strike of telephone workers was called off today, just 25 minutes before the 5 a. m. (CST) deadline, and White House Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said President Truman would name an emergency board "very soon" to move to head off a coast-to-coast railroad tieup set for Monday.

The Brotherhoods of Railway Trainmen and Locomotive Engineers have notified their 300,000 members to start progressive walkout at 5 a. m. (CST) Monday, which they would need to cripple the nation's rail systems.

However, Alvaney Johnston, head of the engineers, said yesterday that the brotherhoods would "consider" any action taken by the government "because we have always bowed in respect to the power of the government."

Under the Railway Labor Act, presidential appointment of an emergency board to investigate a dispute is presumed to forestall any work stoppage from 30 to 60 days, until the panel has had an opportunity to review the issues

Moscow Ignores Monetary Parley

Savannah, Ga., March 7.—(AP)—Strong indications that Russia might completely ignore the international monetary conference appeared here today on the eve of the 35-nation meeting on nearby Wilmington Island.

A state department representative in charge of advance arrangements reported that the Soviet government had not even replied to an invitation to send an observer to the sessions that will formally organize the $3,800,000,000 international monetary fund and the $10,000,000,000 International Bank. Both institutions born at Bretton Woods are aimed among other things at promoting foreign trade on a multilateral cooperative basis.

Thus far, no reservations have been made for a Russian representative in the gleaming, white General Oglethorpe hotel, picturesque scene of the conference.

Two Others Absent

Two other countries invited to send observers will be absent—Haiti and Liberia.

The observer class was set up for nine of the 11 countries present at Bretton Woods which have not yet ratified the agreements or subscribed to their quotas in the fund or bank. Denmark was given a tenth such invitation.

Russia's position in regard to the whole international monetary setup has long been considered enigmatic. At Bretton Woods her representatives fought for and received quotas larger than would have been possible on any straight foreign trade basis.

She agreed to "subscribe $1,200,000,000 to the fund and a similar amount to the bank placing her behind only the United States' total for both of $5,925,000,000 and Britain's $2,600,000,000.

Moscow's only public reason for not ratifying the agreements was that she wanted more time to study the proposals.

Obituary

Funeral services for J. A. Theiss brother of Mrs. Max Lett of Sublette, Ill., who passed away at 6:10 o'clock Thursday evening, February 21 in the Julesburg community hospital, were conducted Sunday afternoon, Feb. 24 at the Austin funeral home by Rev. C. R. Kinsley. Burial was made at Hillside cemetery, Julesburg.

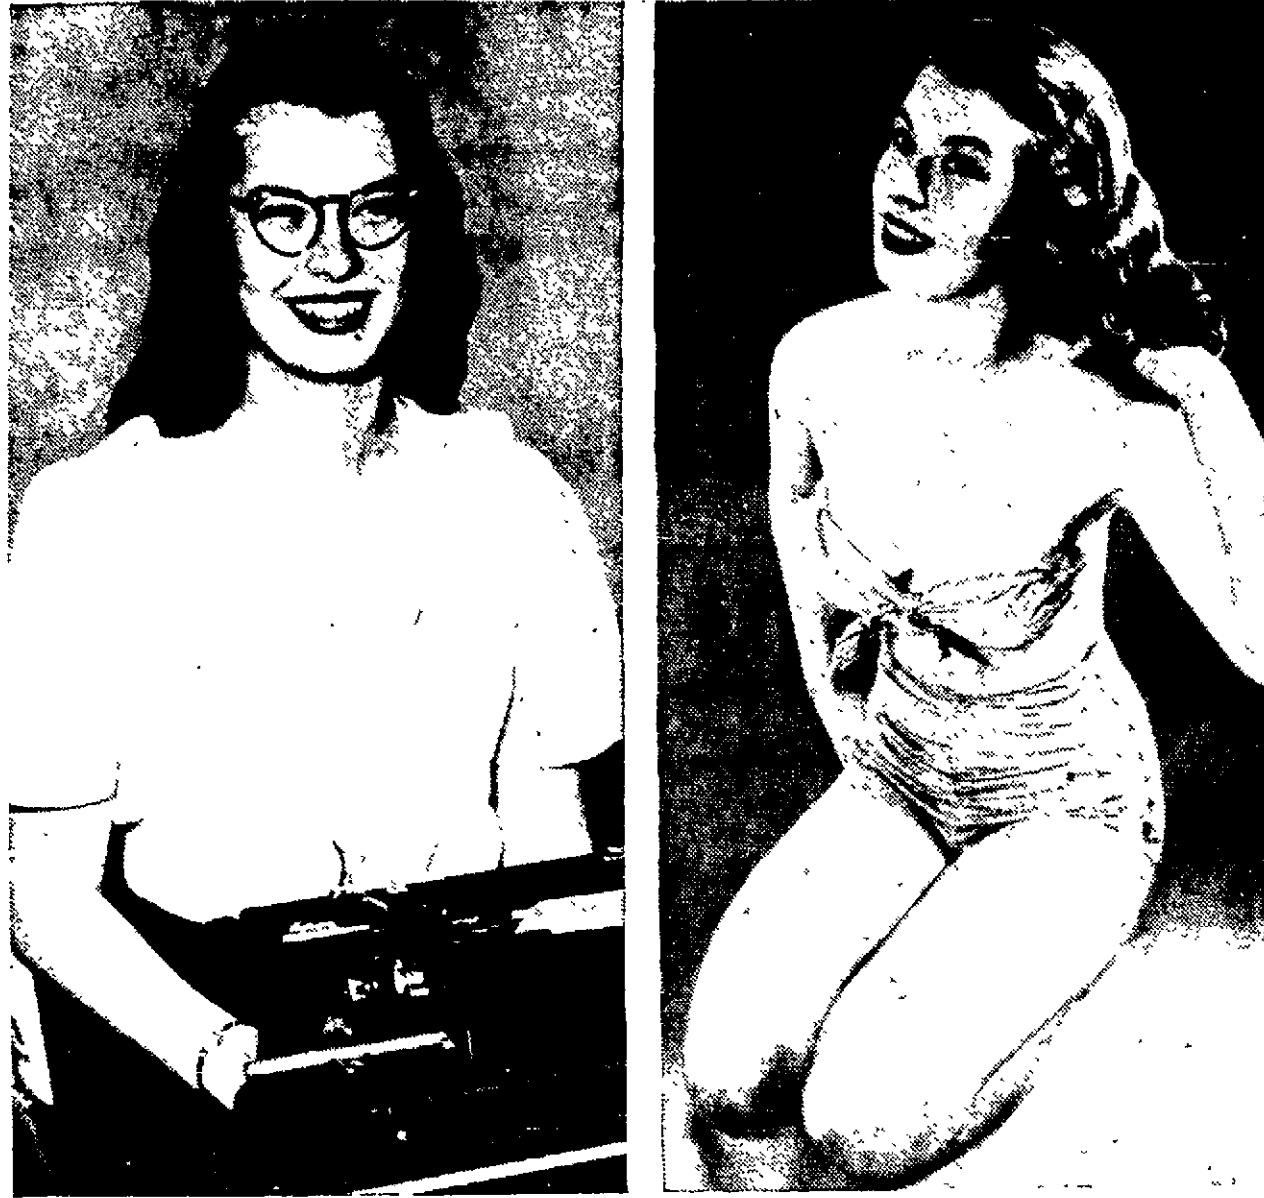

John Albert Theiss was born in Sunlett, Lee county, Illinois, January 23, 1868 the son of George and Caroline Theiss. In his youth he was confirmed in St. Mary's church at Sublette, Ill., and retained his faith in Divine Power to the end.

On August 11, 1898, he was united in marriage to Grace A. Bedient of Sublette. To this union were born three children, Hannah Jeannette, J. Stanley, of Julesburg and Helen Elizabeth, now Mrs. C. L. Eversman of Ovid, Colorado. He is survived by his widow, three children, his grandson, John Lewis Eversman, and a son-in-law, Clarence L. Eversman, of Ovid, two sisters, Mrs. Max Lett of Sublette, Mrs. Bertha Wiltz of Metamora, Ill. and one brother, George Theiss of Spencer, Ia., besides many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, three sisters and three brothers.

His health forced him to retire in December a year ago from his oil business in which he had been engaged in Julesburg since 1925, rendering services in this capacity for a period of 21 years.

The John Theiss family moved to Julesburg in 1918, where they have since made their home. Prior to taking residence in Julesburg 28 years ago, Mr. Theiss lived in York county, Nebraska, for nine years where he was successful farmer and stockman and accumulated enough to follow the urge to settle farther west, which proved to be Julesburg and his faith

In Illinois his earlier occupational interests alternated between farming and merchandising. During his active years he participated in and became an integral part of his home community. He promoted worthy civic activities as long as he was able to do so.

He was always a booster of his home town, especially Julesburg and its community.

His family and friends can cite time and again of his generosity and sympathetic and appreciative understandings. He liked people and the wider his business and friendly contacts, the more gratifying were his efforts and services

His philosophy of life was so patterned that one can truly say of him as the poet, Sam Walter Foss expressed it—"He lived by the side of the road and was a friend to man".

The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms. So don't suffer with the embarrassing rectal itch caused by this ugly pest. Ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W and follow the directions. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

Eviction Faces 1,600 Families This Month

Springfield, Ill., March 7.—(AP)—More than 1,600 families in six central Illinois counties face eviction from their homes by the month's end—nearly 1,000 of them this week, the Springfield OPA district office reported today.

George Clendenin, district rent executive, said the figures, covering rent controlled areas in Sangamon, Adams, Pike, Champaign, Macon and Vermilion counties, were based upon eviction notices filed with the OPA. Most of the proceedings, Clendenin said, were instituted by persons desirous of occupying newly purchased houses.

He said eviction notices this week would affect 437 families in the Springfield-Decatur rent controlled area, 227 in Champaign and Vermilion county areas and 175 in Adams and Pike county areas.

Ousters effective March 31 include 423 additional families in the Springfield-Decatur area, 170 in Champaign and Vermilion county areas and 202 in Adams and Pike county areas.

Wild Dogs

Champaign, Ill., March 7.—(AP)—Those "timber wolves" Illinoisans claim they have shot every winter usually are nothing but wild dogs, the Illinois Natural History survey reported today after examining another specimen.

Dr. Carl O. Mohr and Willet N. Wandell of the Survey examined an animal shot near Champaign a few days ago, reported to be a timber wolf. They said it was a wild dog, probably principally chow with a trace of police dog blood.

AUSTRALIA GIVES VICTUALS

Canberra, Australia.—(AP)—

Australia during the war sent Britain 9.8 billion pounds of food worth more than half a billion dollars. In the last two years about 360,000,000 pounds of food was supplied the British Admiralty; about two-thirds for the Pacific Fleet. The fleet now has moved its base from Sydney to Hong-kong but still depends largely on Australia for food.

Mrs. Hardy, wife of an Army colonel now in China, was planning to start house-hunting when the home she now rents was put up for sale. "But the would-be buyers took one look at the back yard," she said, "and fled."

Brewster Wants More Data on Pearl Harbor

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—Senator Brewster (R-Maine) has said he has asked for more time to prepare written questions about Pearl Harbor for submission to former Secretaries Cordell Hull and Henry L. Stimson.

The Maine senator and other Republican members of the Pearl Harbor investigating committee are seeking more information on the diplomatic events preceding Japan's Dec. 7, 1941, attacks.

Brewster told reporters he made the request to Chairman Barkley (D-Ky.) of the joint senate-house committee and that Barkley had no objections.

Once the Stimson and Hull replies are received, the committee proposes to get down to writing its report. It has until June 1.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Charleston, S. C.—I have concluded a five weeks trip touching closely half a dozen southeastern cities in which I talked with 300 business people and found everywhere the same story, to wit:

Business affairs are in a low,
confusing maze, or as most men
described them "a hell of a mess," (using the term not as an expletive
but in its most accurate sense.)

Unanimously, these people blamed
their troubles on government interferences. The rules and regulations of OPA and other government agencies they said, were the primary cause, and strikes and labor unrest, including slowdowns and disinclination of workers to produce, were secondary elements.

But they attributed the labor condition to government mismanagement as well as the regulations,
so they traced all their economic ills to the single source—government.

They seemed almost unanimous also in what they want done. Merchant, lawyer, builder, banker, broker and all the rest want the government to get out of the regulation business entirely, take the lid off, remove OPA restrictions, price controls, priorities, and let the forces in our economic system find their own free way.

A reasonable argument for the course was presented. What the nation needs is production, they said. This, we are not getting.

They tell stories of how price ceilings are holding back both the manufacture and circulation of goods and absolutely true tales of black markets earning fabulous figures beyond taxation in every city, town and at every cross roads. A representative number of these I have told in previous columns on my journeys. If the lid is removed we will get production swiftly, they say. A flurry of prices upward could be expected
but this would gradually ease down, they contend, as competition is restored by free productive activity.

Unquestionably a wide popular surge for this course has arisen
and soon will be evident in congress—where it could be carried into effect despite the wishes and plans of the new Truman-Bowles management. All congress would be required to do is to kill the war powers acts which will expire June 30 unless renewed. (Some business people wanted the acts killed by an open early vote to allow a few months of continued operations under wartime regulations as a preparatory period in which adjustments could be planned; and others said that if congress does temporarily renew the war powers of the president an

but, then again, perhaps not.
We think Mr. Vandenberg's proposal deserves a fair trial. The international situation demands that it be given one quickly.

THE senator definitely has something there. The Russian nationalist imperialism which has precipitated one international crisis
after another these past months,
however reprehensible and unwise
it may be, is readily understandable. But what is not understandable is the painful hesitancy the United States has repeatedly displayed when the most basic considerations of national interest and international security plainly dictated a firm stand against the course pursued by the USSR.

Josef Stalin is indeed a most incurable character; but one so invariably outspoken in his dealings may well respect the same quality in others. Perhaps the world is now more than ever before two small to support contemporaneously and convulsively two radically divergent political and economic ideologies. Perhaps;

early expiration date should be fixed, say perhaps in the fall for dropping the whole scheme.)

This I judge is practically the desire of the country, in complete contradiction of Washington plans and opinions.

I must confess I could not bring myself wholly to accept these conclusions. A more reasonable course would seem to me to be to work out a compromise between the government position and the yearnings of business—right now.

Generalized, total action one way or another is not called for, in my opinion, because the condition is not alike in any two lines. In some industrial phases, where price ceilings are restraining production, the ceilings should be lifted to the point necessary to inspire production—but no further, until competition is restored, and then all price regulations should be entirely abandoned. If a great bulk of men's shorts are in storage and wholly absent from the retail trade because the price ceiling makes their sale unprofitable the ceiling should be lifted to the point necessary to get the goods out. If the lumber price in communities is so low that the black markets
in the big cities absorb the supply,
the OPA should break the local price or the black market, or both, and meet the situation. In short, each situation needs just adjustment immediately and this could be done by administrative action now. (For another not unrelated example, there is absolutely no reason why newsprint production in this country should be allowed to decline, as it is declining in the face of desperate need and increased Canadian production.)

If Truman and Bowles pitch into this maze or mess and straighten it out, removing the destructive nature of the controls, the objections to them would diminish and competition could be restored. We could get production and distribution that way also. If they do not, they are running a chance of losing their whole management of economic affairs.

Fair Enough

Philip Murray, the president of the C. I. O., turned out a self-serving publicity release recently, boasting that most members of his unions pay low dues and initiation fees and that 32 of the 36 unions publish financial reports.

"This," he says, "is a very different picture from that which the enemies of labor have loved to convey."

And this, I say, is a fine example of that deceptive and only somewhat truthful propaganda for the gullible, which the likes of Murray are forever charging to the likes of me.

In the first place, crookedness, although not unknown in the C. I. O., being a specialty of A. F. of L. racketeers, is not a major count in the indictment of his organization. In the second place, the revelation of such corruption and the denunciation and prosecution of notorious scoundrels are services to labor and the union movement for which anyone professing, as Murray does, to be an honest labor leader, should be grateful.

It will be noted that, although he is an old A. F. of L. man himself, and over all these years has been in a position to raise a righteous clamor and drive such vermin out of the house of labor, he has confined himself to negative and side-long criticisms of his former brethren and has even joined them in attacks on those who did take the initiative and carry through a shocking expose. This task and public service have been made no easier by his own complicity.

Moreover, Murray is a former subordinate of John L. Lewis in the United Mine Workers, which is about as "democratic" as the Communist party and broke with Lewis only over a matter of money when Lewis presented a bill to the C. I. O. for money which Lewis had advanced to the C. I. O. out of the Mine Workers' treasury. That transaction, of itself, by which the builders of an enormous political machine calmly tapped the wages of the miners for the expenses of "organizing" several million other workers, most of them against their will, and by means of riotous brawls that terrorized whole communities, is a measure of this man's character when he invites applause on that ground that his people keep books and don't steal.
Incidentally, Murray refused to pay the miners back.

But it is when Murray boasts of "democratic" procedure that he puts himself into direct controversy with the truth unless he does this with a mental reservation which acknowledges that "democracy" means majority rule and the denial of minority rights, which is its correct meaning. Commonly, however, the unioners of the left wing represent "democracy" as the equivalent of freedom and the recognition of the dignity of man and of his civic rights. And, if Murray uses the word in that sense we can find, on examination of the facts, that his boast is empty.

Sidney Hillman's Clothing
Workers Union is one of the pillars of the C. I. O., and David Dubinsky's Garment Workers was another for a time. Locals of both of these organizations send notices to their members during political campaigns requiring them to attend political rallies disguised as membership meetings and give attention to left-wing candidates for office under penalty of a fine
for failure. Unions under Murray's general jurisdiction have adopted political resolutions binding on the dissenting members, which were no proper business of any group recognized and favored by federal and state laws solely as agents to represent workers in collective bargaining with employers. And, touching on the subject of assessments, cases are on record in which workers who undertook to resign from one of his unions and thought they had resigned according to their right
as American citizens were required to pay as much as $500
years later for the right to work in closed shops, this being the bill for accumulated dues and other obligations of membership from which they derived no benefit during that time.

It is common practice in some of his unions to "sell" stamps for the legal "defense" of Communists and other individuals dangerous to the American government, forcing them on the rank and file by coercive means, although Murray doubtless would classify these shakedowns as voluntary donations. And if Murray isn't aware of the case, I will produce a copy of the minutes of his National Maritime union in which, notwithstanding his statement that all individuals may have fair trials, Joe Curran, president, declared that a racketeer didn't need a trial. A racketeer in the Communist ideology which pervades this union is anyone who condemns Communism
and in one conspicuous case a sailor was set on the beach permanently for offering a resolution to

Jess Turner's labor troubles

For four years Jess Turner ran his harness shop alone. But now his nephew's discharged from the Navy and is back to help him.

Right away, it seems that nephew Delbert has some new ideas. He wants more money, shorter hours—
and meanwhile Jess' expenses have been going up!

So what does Jess do? He invites Delbert to sit down over a friendly glass of beer and talk the situation over. Jess figures how he can give Delbert some extra dollars, and certain interests in the business;

and Delbert figures how he can speed up production on harnesses—
and do some saddle work, besides.
And they seal the bargain with another friendly glass of beer.

Of course, all labor troubles aren't so simple. But from where I sit, if there could be more friendly discussion—more give and take—more tolerance and understanding
—both sides would be a heap better off.

THE STORY: Ann Tucker turns
to a stranger for comfort at a party, following Jack's marriage to another girl.
She is flattered when she finds out he is Colin Drake, her favorite author. Colin lives in Port Drake, a distance from Besille, and they carry on a correspondence. He writes Ann about the crack-up of his marriage
some years before.

III
WHEN Ann lost her job—or,
rather, quit it in a melodramatic moment, her hand still stung from violent contact with the startled though inebriated face of her employer—it was Colin who came to the rescue,
with the proposal that Ann build a house for him. It sounded like the ultimate in dream jobs.

Ann was humbly grateful—so grateful that she presented Colin with the plans for the house that she had been dreaming over and improving ever since she started studying architecture—the home
she was to build some day. Connie was surprised, but on the whole approving. She liked Colin instantly, at their first meeting,
and looked him over with a speculative eye. Like most happily married women Connie was an instinctive matchmaker.

In the long drive north to Port Drake, Ann renewed her acquaintance with Colin as a man.
The easy intimacy of their letters was gone, and she felt strangely shy with him.

"Are you pondering the results
of the uncertain process of letter-writing, Ann?" he asked.

"I'm wondering a little," she confessed, "where I got the idea that I know you rather better than anyone else in the world. I thought that, you know—until I saw you again. And now I realize that I don't really know you at all."

"Oh, I don't know," Colin said.
"I think you do, really. Surely I've managed to convey something of myself in all those words adequate, nearly. With this house they can have at least the outward semblance of a normal life."

Ann wandered over to the fireplace, and stood there, looking up at the portrait that hung above it.
It was of a lovely girl, with golden curls and great gray eyes, a dimple in her soft round chin. "Who is she?" Ann asked.

Colin came and stood beside
her. "My great-grandmother," he said. "I love that picture—you'll have to have a special place for it in my new house. It's a Raeburn, you know—and the only thing that my father got from England. She was a great person, Margaret Duncan. She lived to be 90, and before she died, with her own hands she wrote the address on the crated picture that was her sign of forgiveness to her grandson, Michael Drake, exiled in disgrace from the land of his birth—and doing right well in the land of his adoption, I might add.
It was five years before I was born that my father received that picture—and faint sounds of the family wrath were still echoing
in my earliest memory."

"Why was your father exiled in disgrace, Colin?" Ann asked. She loved the romantic sound of it. It was like something out of a book.

"I never knew exactly," Colin admitted, "but I haven't a doubt that he deserved it. From what I know of his activities here, anyway. He was an old pirate, when I knew him, and pirates don't usually spring into being full-fledged."

Ann was a little shocked, and it showed on her face. "Why, Colin—" she protested.

"Oh, he was a pirate on a big scale," Colin assured her, "and if the scale is big enough, you're always forgiven for it—admitted for it, even."

"Did the rest of the family ever forgive him?" Ann asked.

"I don't know really. They're all gone, now, anyway. I'm the only surviving Drake. Not enemy bullet, a German prison camp,
nor those incredibly unsafe wartime airplanes were sufficient to kill me off," Colin grinned, and changed the subject abruptly.
"How about lunch?" he said.

JOSEPH FASSLER CLAIMS MISS GERTRUDE LAWSON AS BRIDE IN NUPTIAL CEREMONY MONDAY

On Monday, March 4, at 9 o'clock, the Rev. Father Ronald French of St. Anne's Catholic church received the nuptial vows of Miss Gertrude Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawson of Rock Island and Joseph Fassler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Munrod Fassler of Grand Detour, in a double ring ceremony.

The attractive bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with long sleeves and train and trimmed with clusters of tiny pearls around the neckline. Her full length veil was held in place with a tiara of seeded pearls. For her bridal flowers she carried an arm bouquet of white carnations, gladiolus and gardenias. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Joan Kelly, a cousin of the bride and matron of honor, wore a pink taffeta gown with matching elbow length gloves. Juliet cap and shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was of white carnations and blue iris.

Thomas Lawson, brother of the bride, served the couple as best man.

Miss Betty Witzleb, sung "Because," "Liebertraum" and "Ave Maria" with Miss Jane Slothower accompanying her on the organ. Mrs. Fassler, mother of the groom, wore a two-piece black and white ensemble, with black accessories and a corsage of red carnations. Mrs. Lawson chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece dusty rose dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white carnations and blue iris.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bridegroom's home for 75 guests and relatives. The breakfast was prepared and served by Mrs. Ubald Zund and Mrs. Julius Studach.

For her traveling outfit the new Mrs. Fassler was wearing a two-piece blue crepe dress with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses.

After honeymooning in Missouri the couple will reside with the bridegroom's parents where he is engaged in farming.

SOCIAL CIRCLE

The Prairieville Social Circle held its annual mid-winter picnic at the Prairieville church last evening with over 75 in attendance. The table decorations were in St. Patrick's Day motif. A delicious dinner was served after which a social hour was enjoyed by all.

The next all-day meeting will be with Mrs. Jay Seabey, club president, on April 3.

Cub Scout Pack 311 Has First Birthday on Tuesday Night

Cub Scout Pack 311 held their first birthday party on Tuesday night, March 5, in the South Central school auditorium with over 100 Cub Scouts and their parents present for the scramble supper and program that followed.

The tables were very attractively decorated with a green motif and pussy willows for bouquets. A sumptuous repast was enjoyed with chicken and noodles as the main course.

Committee chairman, E. Slothower, then introduced Kenneth Abbott, former scoutmaster of troop 89 and recently discharged from the army, who gave a very interesting talk on his travels while in the service in northern Africa. He illustrated his talk with a large map and many souvenirs of Africa. His talk was highlighted by many stories of his experiences had with the natives while collecting souvenirs. This part of the program was thoroughly enjoyed by the adults as well as the Cub Scouts.

A graduation exercise followed on the evening's program with Johnny Slothower, the first Cub Scout of Pack 311 to pass from the Cub Scouts into the Boy Scouts. The exercise was conducted by Johnny Jones, Den Chief, E. Slothower, Committee Chairman, Charles Roundy, Assistant Cubmaster and F. J. Waytenick, scoutmaster of troop 72 of the Methodist church in whose troop Johnny will become a Boy Scout.

The next feature of the program was conducted by Coleman Six, advancement committeeman, and consisted of the warding of Bobcat pins to Cub Scouts. Dyart and McConnell, Lion Rank to Cub Scout Welty, and Golden Arrow award to Cub Scouts, Stripe and Slothower. These were earned by learning ten achievements more than needed for any one rank.

The program concluded when Chairman Slothower made several announcements in connection with future plans of Pack 311.

Dixon Christian Education Group to Meet Monday

The Dixon Council of Christian Education will hold its first quarterly meeting of this, its fifth year next Monday night in the First Christian church beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Because of many changes in pastors and citizens, the nature of the council is given here. It consists of the co-operating churches of Dixon. Each of which is represented by its pastor, a representative of its governing body, a representative of its church school, a representative of its women's work, a representative of its young people's work, and one additional delegate-at-large for each 300 members or fraction thereof, about the first 300 members. Between its quarterly meetings, the executive committee holds monthly meetings.

Following the business session of the council, and beginning at 8 o'clock, the leadership training committee, of which the Rev. Dr. Blevins is chairman, will have the first of a series of six inspirational studies of the life and teachings of St. Paul based on a recently published book. It is planned to have sound moving pictures to supplement the studies. Although these are primarily for teachers of the church schools, who are urged to attend, with note book and pencil. The programs are open to all others who may be interested. The studies will contribute to the values of the Lenten season. The council session, also, is open to all interested.

During the height of the B-29 strategic bombing program against the Japanese Empire, Sgt. Rippeon was assigned to Adjutant General office at the Superfortress headquarters. Twentieth Air Force B-29's began bombing Japan from bases in the Marianas in November 1944. At war's end, 66 Japanese cities and more than half a hundred industrial targets had been subjected to Superfortress bombing attacks.

Sgt. Rippeon entered the service on Dec. 28, 1942. His wife, Mrs. Mary Rippeon, lives at 606 W. 8th street, Dixon, Ill.

Dukes Open Sectional Tonight

Oregon Bars Path of Local Cagers in Rockford Tourney

East Plays Freeport in Opener; Dixon Game Rated a Toss-Up

Tonight starts a do-or-die session for the Dukes in the East Rockford high school gym when they line up at 8:15 for sectional basketball honors and a trip to Champaign. Coming up to tonight's date with destiny in which Oregon furnishes the opposition.

Approximately 350 tickets for adults will be available at the high school tomorrow for tomorrow's finals if the Dukes are victorious at East Rockford tonight. Principal B. J. Frazier announced today. The tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis.

The Sharpshooters rank as the "Cinderella" team of this part of the state.

Dixon wasn't seriously considered in pre-tournament discussions. Sterling's high flying cagers were cast in the leading role in the local regional, and the Dukes were just one of seven other teams. But Rock Falls dropped a wet blanket on the Sterlings and turned everything topsy turvy.

Upset Caused Shuffle
In fact, there are some anonymous reports floating about that the untoward happenings here caused a reshuffling in sectional assignment, causing the Purple and White squad to play at East Rockford instead of one of the other regional winners in this section.

Once again the Dukes are assigned the role of just another contender. East's Rab's are already being consigned a prominent spot in the state finals activity scheduled for next week in Champaign. The Dukes will have a little bit of everything to cope with in their tiff with Oregon tonight. The Hawks will show a goodly portion of speed, plenty of height and a dangerous scoring punch.

Hawks Are Speedy

Tiny Moe Wachlin, Tony Hollowell, Tom Corcoran, Baldy Haye and Chuck Abbott furnish a big share of the speed, and Patrick is the big boy of the team at 6 feet 4 inches. The scoring punch is well distributed with Patrick and Abbott taking leading roles on the offensive. Their defense has been something to conjure with throughout the season, also. They've held opponents to an average of about 35 points per game. Game time for the Dukes is 8:15, with the Freeport-East match opening the meeting at 7:15. The winners are slated to meet at 8 p. m. tomorrow night.

Probable lineups:

West Conference Track Season to Open on Saturday

Chicago, March 7.—(AP)—Two hundred and sixty-one track and field athletes from Western Conference schools will open the trials in the 36th annual Big Ten track championship meet at the University of Chicago fieldhouse tomorrow night. Finals will be held Saturday night.

Purdue leads in entries with 39, but Illinois, with 27, is favored to dethrone defending champion Michigan. The Wolverines, who have entered 38 men, have captured the indoor title 10 times in the last 12 seasons.

Topping the Illinois competitors are Bill Buster and Bill Mathis in the 60-yard dash, Marc Gonzales and Herb McKenley in the quarter-mile, George Walker in both hurdles, Dwight Eddleman in the jump and broad jump and Captain Bob Phelps in the pole vault.

Hume Twins Will Help

Michigan will again depend on team balance. The Wolverines scored 36 of their winning 55 1/10 points last year in the half-mile, mile and two-mile runs, and are expected to score heavily in those events again. Michigan has some gifted individual performers in the Hume twins, Bob and Ross, the middle distance experts; Hugh Short, quarter-mile; Jim McFadden, in the 880, and Elmer Swanson, hurdler.

While no new records have been entered in the books since 1942, two are in danger of being smashed this week-end and another is threatened.

Lloyd La Beach, Wisconsin freshman from Jamaica, has broad jumped 24 feet, 1/4 inch, while tops the 23 9/16 record. Bill Bangert of Purdue, has a 1946 shotput mark of 52 feet 4 3/8 inches. The old mark is 51 feet 8 3/8 inches.

In the high jump a duel between Dick Kilpatrick of Purdue and Eddleman may result in a new indoor mark. Kilpatrick has done 6-5 and Eddleman 6-4 this season.

Lincoln Cagers Split Pair With N. Central

Lincoln school's basketball squad closed its season last night, splitting a pair with North Central but still winning both heavyweight and lightweight city titles. Lincoln lights won the opener, 9 to 7, while North Central handed Lincoln's heavies their first defeat of the year, 16 to 13, in ten starts.

Lohse of North Central was lightweight high scorer with six points while Mercer got 10 for North Central in the heavy game. Bruce, with four in the lightweight encounter, and Sitter with five for the heavies, led Lincoln.

Mexican "Outlaw League" Bids for Big League Stars

Mexico, City, March 7.—(AP)—Bobby Feller, Cleveland's ace pitcher and one of the highest paid twirlers in organized baseball at a reported $40,000 a season, has been offered $300,000 to jump to the Mexican League for a three-year period, president Jorge Pasquel disclosed today. Feller would be paid $100,000 a season.

"That is nothing," smiled the head of the so-called "outlaw" league. Next season he said he hopes to get Hank Greenberg and Ted Williams, slugging outfielders for the Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox, respectively.

"I'm getting in touch with them right now," he told the Associated Press in an interview. He did not say how much he plans to offer Greenberg and Williams. Neither did he say if Feller had replied to his offer.

Referring to organized baseball's criticism of his independent circuit, Pasquel declared: "We are ready to fight with them in any way that may be necessary. If they want to come and scrap it out they'll have to put up $300,000."

Major leaguers who reportedly already have jumped to the Mexican circuit include Danny Gardella and Nap Reyes, of the New York Giants; Luis Olmo, of the Brooklyn Dodgers and pitcher Alejandro Carrasquel of the Chicago White Sox.

Adolfo Luque, former Giant pitcher and coach, will manage Puebla in the eight-team circuit. "I believe we'll have Luque for life," Pasquel said. "But what were paying him is a military secret."

Top Cage Stars to Play in Tourney

By SKIPPER PATRICK

Kansas City, March 7.—(AP)—Emil Liston wants everybody to know that the national association of inter collegiate basketball's five day tourney, starting here Monday, isn't a "tournament of small colleges".

To strengthen his point the executive secretary of the NAIB mentioned that the second and third high individual scorers of the nation would compete—namely Elmer Morgenthaler, 7-foot, 1-inch New Mexico School of Mines Center who has averaged 21.9 points for 27 games, and Fred Lewis, eastern Kentucky forward traveling at a 21.5 point clip.

Liston said that the eighth annual tournament likely would return to its pre-war maximum of 32 teams, with 28 teams already entered or engaged in qualifying playoffs.

Liston listed the present field as including:
Loyola University, New Orleans, 1915 champion; Pepperdine College of Los Angeles, finalist last year; Iowa State Teachers College; Southern Illinois Normal, Culver-Stockton of Missouri; Eau Claire State of Wisconsin; Indiana State and Loras College of Iowa.

Lewis Olmstead, younger son of the Harry Olmsteads, placed first and received a gold medal for his saxophone numbers at the District Musical Competitive Festival of the I. H. S. A., held at Streator Saturday, March 2. He will compete at the regional meeting held in DeKalb in May. He also participated in an octet at Streator. He has been elected president of his junior high school class.

'A Little Birdie Told Me'

A white cockatoo gets right close to former Prime Minister Winston Churchill's ear, apparently giving him a very confidential low-down on something or other, while a gaudy parrot pretends to ignore the whole affair. This unusual photo of the world statesman was snapped when Churchill visited the Miami Beach parrot jungle just before ending his Florida vacation.

Bragg, N. C., expects to leave there the middle of March and get his honorable discharge at Chanute Field, Ill. He has been in service over three years, the greater part of which he was stationed at Elgin Field, Fla. His brother, Milburn, S. 1/c has been in the navy for nearly two years and sailed from New Orleans, La., the last of January for Germany or Poland. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dewey and Donna will occupy the Roy Wooltheater farm vacated by the Whites.

M.M. 3/c Gordon Parker of the Navy Seabees, who has been ill with cat fever in the San Diego, Calif. Navy hospital will soon be dismissed and will go to Great Lakes about March 11, where he will get his honorable discharge.

The W. S. Frosts were evening dinner guests last week at the Jerry Gorman home in North Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Foote, Patty and Jerry, were week end visitors at the Chalmers Glenn home in Delavan.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Parker of this area and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hartshorn of Rock Falls, attended the Sportsmen's show in Chicago Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reno Johnson of Pittsburgh, Pa. spent several days last week at the Lyle Bretweiser home.

John Enroute for Home
T Sgt Robert B. Jahn of the A. A. C. is now sailing for home and may arrive this week.

Mrs. Charles Berg, Jr., went to Cedar Rapids, Ia., Saturday to visit friends until Tuesday.

Sgt. Harry Kalsted arrived here Thursday from Camp Grant after receiving his honorable discharge from overseas service at Manila, P. I.

Olmstead Son Honored
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olmstead entertained at dinner and supper at their Ottawa home Sunday in honor of their son, S/Sgt. Harry Olmstead who arrived in New York harbor on Washington's birthday after sixteen months of overseas service in France and Germany with the 220th Field Artillery. He received his discharge at Ft. Sheridan. Prior to going overseas, he trained at Scott Field, Ill. Camp Adair, Ore., Yakima Center, Wash.; Camp Shelby, Miss.; Ft. Mead, Md.; Camp Barkley; Bowie, Hood, Tex.; Camp Shanks, N. Y., and upon his return to the U. S. was in Camp Kilmer, N. Y. for a short time. He wears the Good Conduct medal, the European Theater ribbon with two battle stars for campaigns in the Rhineland and central Europe, the American Theater ribbon, the Victory ribbon, three Overseas Service stripes, one service stripe. He arrived at his Ottawa home Wednesday of last week, bringing a large collection of souvenirs, all interesting. While in Europe he spent several days on the French Riviera and also visited London.

Those attending the gathering Sunday from this area included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Martz, the Andrew Aschenbrenner family, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Frost and Stanley, the W. S. Frosts. Other guests were present from Ottawa, Waterman, Villa Park and Shabbona. An impromptu program by all present proved quite entertaining.

Entertain At Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hill entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller, sons Bill and Jack of Hanover, Mrs. Rose Burke and Jerry of Rock Falls, and the Raymond Hill family of this area. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Miller's birthday.

Civilian Commander For Air Force Urged

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—A civilian high command for the nation's air forces was advocated today by Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah) who asserted that past leadership demonstrated "lack of vision and stubborn allergy to new ideas."

The Utah legislator, chairman of the senate military committee, rated Hitler's Luftwaffe as qualitatively superior to the U. S. Army Air Forces.

Had our invasion of Europe been delayed six months," he said, "we might have lost the war due to our inferiority in the air, because Germany would have regained command of the skies."

Thomas set forth his opinion in an article appearing in the current issue of American magazine.

Hollywood

BY BOB THOMAS

Hollywood — (AP) — Robert Walker, a contentious character, says at last he is getting a chance to act.

"So far I have been playing naive boys," he told me in the abandoned MGM commissary. He contended he is neither a boy (he is 27), nor naive (he didn't explain this).

The Salt Lake City actor said his first chance to escape the gee whizz type of role is in "Till the Clouds Roll By," the Jerome Kern biography on which Metro is lavishing most of its talent and a sizable chunk of dough. Walker is playing the late composer and he says it is a challenge to his acting ability.

"Most of the picture portrays Kern in middle age," he said. "Any actor will tell you it is easy to play youth or old age, but middle-age is tough."

On another occasion, Bob complained to me about fan magazine stories which described him as just naive and homey as the roles he has played. "Nuts," he said. "I have become selfish and money-conscious."

Careful Robert You're liable to get a reputation for being honest.

The new David Loew-Charles Enfield outfit, which is shaking up a threat to the major studios, is launching a search for the most popular book in the United States, outside of the Bible. The company will make a picture of the winner, even if it turns out to be "How to Win Friends and Influence People." Enrol Flynn makes one of his rare appearances on the Jack Haley show Thursday to plug his book. Van Johnson arrives home this week which will eliminate all those long-distance calls to Sonja Henie. Try this to improve your homework — Dennis Morgan has 16 MM films to parallel his children's schoolwork.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
New York, March 7.—(AP)—Housing problem: The house in which Frank Murray lived for nine years while coaching Virginia football was sold recently and Frank was notified to move by July 1. Frank couldn't find another house in Charlottesville, Va., so he solved the problem by moving all the way to Milwaukee. Of course, a juicy five-year contract at Marquette may have had something to do with it. Before reporting for duty at St. Bonaventure's last week, Hughie Devore toured the hard coal regions of Pennsylvania with Bob Nork, coach at Seton Hall Prep, South Orange, N. J. Hughie's "bird dog" formerly coached at Shenandoah, Pa., and supplied some good material for Fordham and Notre Dame. Gil Dadds' new $1,600 board track at Wheaton, Ill., college was built from the blueprints for the Madison Square Garden track.

SPORTS BEFORE YOUR EYES

Andy Neiding, who'll be an added starter in the Columbian mile Saturday, reported from Europe in January that he was ready for a 4:10 mile, but he lost some of that form when his return was delayed. All he or Les Mac Mitchell will have to do to win the Spellman trophy is to beat 4:07.3. Bill Carr, 1932 Olympic 400 meter champion, plans to settle in Hong Kong as representative of an insurance company now that his tour of duty as a navy lieutenant is over. Steve Trebotich, the Detroit Lions' blocking back, is undecided between a Lion offer and his west coast shoe business. Professional note: The U. of Georgia is planning to spend most of its 30,000 Oil Bowl check on building some new radio booths and improving the press box and concessions stands at its football stadium. Cornell also is planning press box improvements, including protection against foul weather—of which there is plenty at Ithaca during the football season.

DEPT. OF FINER PROSE

An item from the Australian news and information bureau says Vic Patrick, Aussie lightweight and welter champ, is described as having "the courage of two lions, the wallop of tip hammer and a style hard to fathom as a jigsaw puzzle with some of the pieces missing". . . . Who threw them words?

Home Bureau

The members of the Wyoming unit of the Home Bureau gathered at the home of Mrs. Earl Kaiser on Friday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting. The regular business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. August Schiesinger, presiding, and roll call was answered with 24 members responding to the call of her name by telling of "a personal luxury not a necessity, for which I long." It was voted to donate $5 to the Red Cross which is sponsoring a drive at the present time. It was also announced that everyone is to bring their scrap paper to their next meeting, and all hope that a large amount will be collected. The major lesson was on "Care of Rayon Clothing," which was most interesting as we all want to take the best possible care of our clothing that we now have. This was ably given by Mrs. Harry Poltsch and Mrs. Carl Rosenkrans, and there was no minor lesson given at this meeting. After all of the business had been taken care of, a social hour followed, with the hostess, Mrs. Raymond Schoenholz serving delicious refreshments. The afternoon drew to a close all too soon, and their next meeting will be held on Friday, April 5, at the home of Mrs. Paul Greenawalt and all are urged to be in attendance.

Card Party

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Haefner entertained a number of friends and relatives at their home for a card party. The evening was spent playing progressive "500" and prizes were awarded to both men and women. Mrs. Leo Eggers was awarded first prize for the women, and Mrs. Lewis Clemmons received the consolation prize. Top honors for the men went to Larry Druen and Edgar Haefner for their high score. A door prize was also awarded and Larry Druen drew this lucky number. The remainder of the evening was spent in visiting and during the social hour the hostess served a dainty two-course lunch to which everyone did ample justice. It was at a late hour when the guests departed and all reported a most enjoyable evening, thanking the Haefners for their genuine hospitality.

Hamilton Holt, above, president of Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla., will be host to President Truman during the chief executive's Florida vacation when Rollins College will award to Mr. Truman an honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities.

To Honor Truman

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Haefner, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Eggers and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bauer of Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Druen and daughter, Angela, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clemmons, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Haefner and Miss Doris Mead of Paw Paw.

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Ivan Urish for their February meeting with a good number in attendance. The regular business session was held with the president, Mrs. Myrt Rogers, presiding, and Mrs. Clarence Cornelius had charge of the devotionals. A report was given that over 1200 old Christmas cards were sent to the children's home New York and that a large number of quilt blocks were sent to the Indian mission in Arizona and also to the Indians in Montana. Plans were also made for the diamond anniversary of the Missionary societies of the Northern Baptist convention celebration which will be held on April 3, at the Paw Paw Baptist church. This promises to be an outstanding event and one that everyone who attends will long remember. Four new members, Mrs. Chester Gaines, Mrs. Wilbur Clemmons, Mrs. Maude Case and Mrs. Judith Vance have been added to the membership roll at this meeting. Mrs. Ivan Urish was in charge of the lesson on "Hebrew Christians" and this was given in a pleasant manner. A social hour followed the business meeting and the hostess, Mrs. Wilbur Clemmons and Miss Jessie Smith served a delicious luncheon. Their next meeting will be held on April 3, after the anniversary celebration, a week later than the usual scheduled meeting.

Twins Christened

The twin boys of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lamps, Brian Lynn and Bruce Lee, were christened at the Lutheran church in Peru Sunday afternoon. At this impressive ceremony the twin boys' aunt, Mrs. Robert Sawyer, was present and one of the sponsors. It was a most memorable event as Everett Urish, who has just recently been discharged from service, was able to be present.

Members of the family who were able to witness this ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sawyer and daughter, Joanna, of Lafayette, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Jean Urish and son, Allan, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Urish and son, Jackie, of Paw Paw.

Birthday Club

Mrs. Corda Gibbs entertained the Birthday club at her home on Saturday evening at a party honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Mabel Worsley. A most delicious 6:30 o'clock dinner was served, with everyone thoroughly enjoying all of the tasty foods. After all of the dishes were cleared away, auction bridge was played and when all of the individual scores were added, Mrs. Mabel Worsley was determined the winner and Mrs. Arthur Harper won the consolation prize. The club was glad to have their special guest, Mrs. Grace Shaidnagle, and they then presented Mrs. Worsley with a lovely gift. It was a pleasant evening for all and a most enjoyable birthday celebration for the guest of honor.
